(220 x 140). pp, 37-54, 193-201, (1). Mounted and signed cabinet photograph as frontspiece. 2 articles from Murray's Magazine bound together with 4pp of blanks at the beginning and 58pp of blanks at the end. Ownership inscription on front pastedown of Constance H. Graham, dated 1890. Page edges a little dusty. Gilt all edges. Red patterned cloth with gilt title on upper board. Backstrap missing but binding tight and sound. Lady de Ros was born in 1795 and died in 1891, her father being the Duke of Richmond, and in her long life she was acquanted with nineteen Prime Ministers. As a child she often played with the Princess Charlotte. In the 'Personal Recollections', published in Murray's Magazine when she was already a nonogenarian, she records many anecdotes of the Duke of Wellington. In 1814, the family went to live in Brussels, and it was in her mother's house in the Rue de la Blanchisserie that the memorable ball was held on the eve of Waterloo. At the ball supper she sat next to the Duke of Wellington where he gave her an original miniature of himself painted by a Belgian artist. There was some controversy over actually where the ball was held and it was this controversy which led her to publish her 'Recollections'.

(187 x 112). pp, vi, (2), 176. 9 lithograph plates including folding panorama and folding schematic of walks. Wood engraved Foley armorial on the dedication page. Small water stain and patchy foxing to frontspiece. Contemporary diced calf, quite rubbed and marked, loss to head of spine and corners bumped and worn. A rare and very early book to contain lithographs. Anderson (p.306) lists the first edition as 1822. (the second edition was published in 1825). Our copy has a few unrecorded variations which could only have came later in 1822. The prefaces of both issues are dated July 1822 and both contain variant spellings for e.g. Hulmandel / Hullmandel. Despite the differences in the illustrations, both in their order and ,occasionally in the imprints and composition, the list of 'Embellishments'is the same, but only correct fo the first issue and incorrect for this one. In this issue, the lithographs are as follows, in the order they appear. 1) folding frontspiece of Malvern, lithographed by I.Bradley and printed by C. Hullmandel. This image did not appear in the first issue. 2) Belle Vue Hotel, I. Bradley lithographed. printed by Rowney and Forster. Significant differences in the image. This plate appeared fifth in order in the former issue. 3) Church Window, no imprint. Same image as first issue. 4) Library & Boarding House, printed by Rowney and Forster. Same image as before. 5) Baths and Pump Room, with an imprint for this issue. I. Bradley Lithog. Printed by Rowney & Forster. The image differs significantly. 6) Down's Hotel, printed by Rowney and Forster. Some minor differences in the image. 7) Worcestershire Beacon [folding bird's eye panoramic sketch}, no imprint. 8) Sketch of the Walks [folding, printed by Rowney & Forster. 9) Stoke Edith Park, lithographed by I. Bradley and printed by C. Hulmandel. This appeared as the frontspiece in the first issue.
